Urges Need of Chaperons, Judge William H. De Lacy, of the Juvenile Court, was the principal speaker at the opening meeting. In reviewing the work of his court, Judge De Lacy spoke of the need of a chaperon at the social gatherings of the younger folks.

Though there may seem to be no need for this objectionable feature to social functions, yet the best interests of society are conserved when she is about, said Judge De Lacy. "For mat reason i am strongly in favor of her presence at all social functions. The chaperon should at all times be upheld, for her's is the staving hands which serves wen for the government of the society.'

Rev. Clarence Whitmore, of Trinity Church, delivered the address of welcome at the morning meeting.
